Even more futuristic than the classical Bauhaus typeface Futura, "Geometrico" is a geometric typeface based on round, geometric shapes as suggested by its name. Designed without compromises, neither in form nor in function: Geometrico is ideal for logotypes, headlines and other modern typographic purposes. Avoid any compromise. Use Geometrico.

Geometric and Slabserifs: a relatively rare combination. GeometricoSlab takes its cue from Herb Lubalin's typeface family of the same name, and by using optical corrections with restraint, it looks a touch more uncompromising. The flexible, partly asymmetrical arrangement of the serifs avoids an overly heavy effect. The typeface family is suitable for both headlines and small point sizes.
